Nice easy ride. See an old mine, stop along a beautiful creek, in forests and high desert. Stop at a great Deli for lunch - lunch is on you! Ride along the West Walker river, great vistas!

Ride #4 Rocklin Mine Trail

Available: Thursday, Friday, Saturday
Difficulty: Advanced | 100 miles
UTV's allowed on Thursday's ride - ATV's ONLY on all other days!
Beginners are NOT allowed on this ride! This ride can be 8+ hours of riding. If you are a slow rider—do not come!

UTV's only allowed on Thursday! ATV's are allowed All days!

This is a great ride and fast paced! Cross the Sweetwater mountains, ride canyons, ridge tops, visit two mines, see forest and high desert. Bring your own food, water & gas!

Ride #5 Wilson Creek Camp-over

Available: Thursday Only (Thursday & Friday 2 day overnight ride)
Difficulty: Intermediate - Advanced | 112 miles
UTV's Welcomed!
Note that this is a two day camp-over ride. You are responsible for carrying your own camping gear (sleeping bag, tent, etc.), water and extra fuel! There is an extra $15 charge for this ride to cover the cost of dinner.

Truly a once in a lifetime experience. Ride across one mountain range and onto another. Traverse this range down into the Smith Valley (Nevada) then onward to the West Walker river for the night. Dinner is a "Hobo" style stew dinner that always receives great reviews from riders. Bring your fishing pole and fish the world-famous Walker River (Nevada license is required). The next morning rise to the smell of the great outdoors (breakfast is continental style). Then mount up and head towards home.

There is limited space on this ride! Sign up early!

Explanation of Rider versus Non-Rider -

RIDER - Any person that is on a ride is considered a rider. Whether the person is driving or is just a passenger.

NON RIDER - Any person that does not go on any ride and only attends non-ride events. Such as: breakfasts, dinners, social, etc.
